WESTERLY

The quick action of Charles Livingston, driver of the big five-ton truck of the R. A. Sherman Son's company from crashing into the Brophy store in Canal street and striking the ornamental lamp post in front of the office of the Westerly Light and Power company, Tuesday morning. The truck had a load of sewer pipe, and five laborers, and was coming down Canal street and, when in front of the Brophy store, a truck owned by J. H. Blackler and going in the same direction struck the hub of the forward left hand wheel of the Sherman truck. The impact caused Livingston to lose control of the steering wheel for an instant, and the wheels on one side of the truck went on the sidewalk, the truck heading obliquely for the Brophy store. Livingston soon had hold of the steering wheel, applied the brakes, shut off the engine, and brought the truck to a standstill and within a foot of the lamp post, with two wheels on the sidewalk and two in the street. Two lengths of the large sewer pipe were broken, and one of the laborers had his foot caught between the pipe when the truck stopped. His injury was slight. None of the other men were injured. The steering gear was so badly damaged that the big truck had to be towed to a garage.

The Blackler truck was not damaged and the driver, Charles Livingston, did not strike the Sherman truck but a dent in the wheel hub of the Sherman truck tends to discredit the claim, unless this mark was there before the accident, but it did not have that appearance. Another excuse for the accident is that the big truck skidded on the track, but the fact before the machine could be controlled went onto the sidewalk. Mr. Livingston, who is an expert motor truck driver, denies that the truck skidded and that the accident was due to the Blackler truck striking the forward hub of the Sherman car.

Preparations were completed for an auspicious opening of the forty-fifth annual fair of the Washington County Agricultural society at Kingston on Tuesday morning, and arrangements made for the accommodation of an immense crowd of people, but the great crowd did not assemble as it was not a fair day for the fair. When the gates were opened at eight in the morning the wind was from the north-east and a brisk rain storm was on, and the whole event bore a gloomy aspect. The officials of the fair, the exhibitors, and the concessionaires were there in force, ready to entertain and do business, but patronage was lacking. The result was a general disappointment mutually shared by the fair management and those who had planned to be at the fair on the opening day. The exhibits in all classes are better than ever, and there is marked increase in the general attractions. With fair weather for the balance of the week, the Washington county event will be bigger than ever, so say the management and everything about the fair grounds gives substantiation of the claim.

More horses, and faster ones, are entered for the racing events, and it is expected there will be lively contests for the liberal purses. Al Kingsley, the veteran horseman and who is expert in all that pertains to horse racing, will act as starter for the races at the Kingston fair for the fifth consecutive year.

The races scheduled for Tuesday will be this (Wednesday) afternoon and a double bill, that is four instead of five events will be pulled off. The card: 2:30 trot and 2:25 pace; 2:32 trot and 2:19 pace.

COVENTRY

A very pretty home wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Harriette Marie Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hawkins, was united in matrimony to Mr. Robert R. Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Mills, of Westport. The bride was attended by Miss Dorothy Thoutte of Westport, and the bridesmaids were Misses M. and E. of Westport. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. C. McKnight, a special benediction service being used. The wedding march was played by Mrs. H. C. McKnight. The bride wore a gown of embroidered white tulle and carried a bouquet of flowers. The bridesmaid wore pink voile trimmed with pink satin and carried pink flowers. The decorations were ferns, sweet peas, asters and other cut flowers. About 75 relatives and friends were present, and the bride received many gifts of money and useful articles. The happy couple, after congratulations, left in their automobile and will tour in New York state, on their return, they will reside in Westport.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Society, Wednesday, the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Isaac P. Fiske; vice president, Mrs.

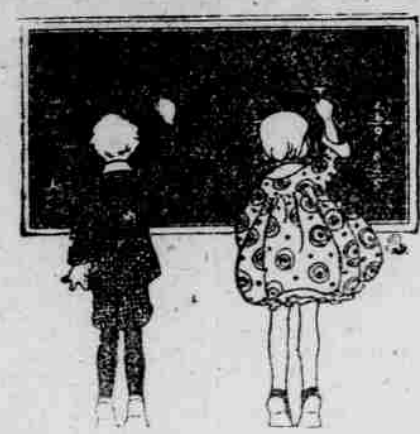

Relief Sought--Goldine Does It

Mrs. J. L. Grodski, of 116 High street, Norwich, said: "For five years and on I have been troubled with stomach trouble, the mucus would drop down my throat and cause me to cough and spit and I would raise a lot of phlegm. The gas would come up in my throat and cause a sour disagreeable feeling. I would also bleed a lot, and feel very bad after eating. I had a very poor appetite and was quite constipated. I was also troubled a lot with catarrh and I would take cold easily and subject to pains across the back and throat trouble. I heard of Goldine the medicine that was being demonstrated at the Broadway Pharmacy and I got some. I have only used the medicine a week, but feel much better. I do not feel as bad as I did, the gas has left me and I feel the medicine has done me so much good that I want to let others know of it."

"MRS. J. L. GRODSKI"
For the benefit of those who have not yet called on the Goldine man, I wish to explain that these remarkable results are not obtained by one medicine for all ills, but by two different remedies. Goldine No. 1 is used in the treatment of stomach, heart and nervous troubles. Goldine No. 2 for kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles.

Norwich Grange Meeting.

Norwich grange is to resume this month its program of two meetings per month, which had been given up during the summer, and tonight will be the first of these meetings on the second Wednesday of the month. A large attendance of the grangers is looked for.

Davis Theatre.

This show billed for the Davis today and Thursday is one that will please both young and old and it has a variety of pictures that take in feature drama, news weekly, serial, colored pictures, and comedy. The feature attraction is Bessie Barriscale in her latest dramatic success entitled The White Lie, a five-part society picture full of interest and dramatic scenes. Those who have seen the picture say it is the best picture this pretty star has ever appeared in. In addition to the up-to-date and well priced with all the latest events in pictures comes next, also the Pathé Color Revue, a beautiful scenic film of places of interest in the 13th episode of the big Universal serial, The Lure of the Circus, entitled The Plunge for Life. This is one of the best installations of this theatre and exciting drama. The Messenger Boy, a funny Hank Mann comedy, completes the program. Don't fail to see this show.

Breed Theatre.

The Four Flushers, a new Metro comedy-drama, with the dynamic Little Hamilton as the star, will be the feature attraction at the Breed today and Thursday. It is a brilliant picture of a real original story written especially for this popular stage and gives him such a role as has made him famous on the stage as well as the screen. Mr. Hamilton, in The Four Flushers, plays the role of a hard-working young New Yorker who is tired of "just getting by" and who when he gets hold of a live tip and big deal, sets out with might and main to equal the sensational history of the greatest financial geniuses. He stakes all his savings, loses it, and then on the big plunge and then plays the game to a finish that is both thrilling and dramatic. There are many exciting and dramatic incidents throughout the plot of the picture. All the five acts of this feature are a luxury of richly decorated interiors and beautiful exterior backgrounds.

Beggs Hyland will also be seen in Cowardice Court, a picture of one of the best known of George Barr McCutcheon's masterpieces, and Hyland will complete the bill for today and Thursday.

AUDITORIUM.

Alsace, the beautiful province which has provided material for an indefinite wealth of literature is the locale for most of the scenes in "Alsace," the picture, Daring Hearts, which will be shown at the Auditorium theatre today. When executives of Vitaphone undertook the preparation of this picture, they discovered that Alsace had been almost entirely ignored by all previous films.

There are hundreds of pictures treating of the scenes and history of northern France, Belgium, Russia, Italy and other countries whose soil has been blood-soaked, but virtually none on Alsace.

Albert E. Smith, president of the Vitaphone, and Cyrus Townsend Brady, who collaborated in the scenario, were able to find unlimited material based on fact to support their romance of old Alsace.

The result was a motion picture that rears the neglect Alsace has suffered at the hands of the film industry. It presents the real story of the "Lost Province."

Francis X. Bushman and Miss Beverly Bayne, appearing as co-stars in Daring Hearts, are enabled to bring in their high artistic ability into full swing. Daring Hearts is a picture of thrill and romance.

New things to eat are being discovered all day—seemingly for the purpose of adding to the high cost of living.

TELL THE WORLD THIS WOMAN SAYS

That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made Me a Well Woman.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I suffered with female troubles for years, was sick most of the time, and was not able to do my own housework, and I could not get help from doctors. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers, and took six bottles, and am a well woman. You can use my name to tell the world the good your medicine has done me as I shall praise it all the time."—Mrs. A. L. DeVine, 647 St. I Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, indigestion, irregularities, backache, headache, nervousness or "the blues," should do as Mrs. DeVine did, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial. For over forty years this famous remedy, which contains the curative strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, has been correcting just such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
